This four-bedroom villa in Campoamor combines a prime location overlooking the golf course with a practical design that works well for full-time living or as a second home on Spain's Costa Blanca. Set on a corner plot, it benefits from privacy, natural light, and direct views across the fairways, while still being just a short walk to the La Fuente commercial centre and the Campoamor golf clubhouse. The property has a total built size of 234 m<sup>2</sup> on a manageable plot. It is arranged across two floors, with outdoor areas that include a private pool, tiled terraces, and shaded parking. With heating, air conditioning, and modernised interiors, it is well prepared...(Ask for More Details!)
